

Forgive us, O God. Break open what is hardened within us, loosen our grip on fear and self-protection, and renew us by Your Holy Spirit. Restore to us the joy of Your salvation, that our lives may reflect the mercy we have received in Christ, in whose name we pray. Hear us now as we confess in silence...

Prelude George Hawkins

Welcome and Announcements Andrew Dennis, Liturgist

Gathering Prayer (in unison): Holy and faithful God, You call Your people out of darkness and into Your marvelous light. You speak not only in thunder and proclamation, but in the quiet wisdom of Your Spirit, shaping hearts before shaping words. You do not desire empty devotion or faith performed for display, but lives made whole; lives that seek justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with You.

As we gather in this place, gather also our scattered hearts. Expose what is false within us, strengthen what is faithful, and kindle again the light You have placed in Your people. By Your Spirit, form us as salt for the earth and light for the world, that all we do in this hour may glorify You and bear witness to the grace we have received in Jesus Christ, our Lord and our Redeemer. Amen.

Call To Worship

L: Blessed are those who fear the Lord and delight in God's ways.

P: Their righteousness endures forever; their hearts are steady and strong.

L: You are the salt of the earth; you are the light of the world.

P: We shine not for ourselves, but to give glory to God.

L: Come, let us worship the One who reveals wisdom by the Spirit.

P: We come to worship the Lord, our light and our salvation.

*Hymn Longing for Light, We Wait in Darkness

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession (in unison): God of justice and mercy, You have shown us the way of life, yet we confess that we often choose easier paths. You call us to worship with our whole lives, but we settle for words without obedience and devotion that costs us very little. We confess that we have fasted without freeing the oppressed, prayed without loving our neighbors, and sought blessing without becoming a blessing to others. We have hidden our light when it was safer to remain silent, and lost our saltiness when faith demanded courage.

"From the rising of the sun to its setting, let the name of the Lord be praised!" Psalm 113:3
